Abstrak

Sunday school is one of the non-formal education for children aged 1-15 years who are Christians in Indonesia, one of them in Maluku. The Sunday School in Maluku is one of them, under the Maluku Protestant Church (GPM) in the form of Sunday Schools and Tunas Pekabaran Injil (SM-TPI), and also Catechisms. SM-TPI education and GPM catechism are levels of formal church education that are expected to be followed by all levels of age of children, from 1 year old to 15 years old. The implementation of education and guidance for children, adolescents and GPM catechisms are classified as follows, a) toddlers aged 1-3 years old, b) indria children aged 4-6 years old, c) children, aged 7-9 years, d) children , aged 10-12 years old, e) GPM adolescents, aged 13 to 15 years old, and f) GPM catechism aged 16 years old and over. The aim of the GPM Sunday School is to shape the character of GPM children in accordance with the character of Jesus Christ as written in the Bible; but to understand the Bible for children sometimes it is still difficult, because there are several styles of language and thoughts that are quite difficult for children to understand. Therefore, one way to ask children to understand Bible is by applying interesting activities with the help of interesting media as well. The development of animated videos aims to help Sunday school children understanding the word of God and can help Sunday school teachers to deliver Sunday school material especially at the level of young children, so that the GPM Sunday school goals can be achieved. The types of videos made in this development are animated videos. Animation is used in order to attract the attention of children, and the material used in the development of the video is material that is adapted to the Sunday school teaching materials of GPM level 3, namely testifying character materials. This animated video was developed using the ASSURE research model. The result of the validation tests from material experts, media experts, design experts shows that animated videos are very useful and suitable to be used in the learning process in Sunday school. Based on the results of field tests of this animated video as well, it can help Sunday school children in understanding the material taught by the teacher, particularly the material of testifying characters.
